Re: York Railway Company – Abandonment Exemption –
in York County, PA Surface Transportation Board Docket No. AB 1307X Yorkrail, LLC – Abandonment Exemption –
in York County, PA Surface Transportation Board Docket No. AB 1308X

Dear Ms. Brown:

Pursuant to 49 C.F.R. §1152.29(b)(2), York Railway Company (“YRC”) and Yorkrail, LLC (“Yorkrail”) hereby respond to the request for interim trail use filed by York County Rail Trail Authority (“YCRTA”) on November 13, 2020. YRC and Yorkrail, respectively, the owner of the common carrier operating rights and the owner of the underlying rail assets of the rail line subject to abandonment, state that they are willing to negotiate an interim trail use agreement with YCRTA. As indicated in the Notice of Exemption, YRC and Yorkrail have agreed to sell the rail line subject to abandonment to YCRTA.

Although YRC and Yorkrail do not believe that a public use condition is necessary given its agreement to the issuance of a notice of interim trail use, YRC and Yorkrail take no position on YCRTA’s request for a public use condition.
