RE: Docket No FD 36500

Dear Joshua Wayland, Surface Transportation Board, c/o
VHB

The City of Cowgill has previously requested for brush and debris to be cleared from the property owned by the railroad inside city limits. This section of unkept property runs adjacent to the main highway in Cowgill creating a dangerous corner for drivers for the view is obstructed by tall brush. Parallel to this property is 6th street. 6th Street runs back to the public school. Children walk to and from school. This brush creates a problem for those walking to be properly seen by drivers. This property is creating a dangerous situation for the surrounding establishments.

Sincerely,
