Woan Foong Wong,

This email is sufficient information to add a research assistant to WB21-65.

Just provide me the name of the individual and place of occupation and I will provide a blank agreement for them to sign.

When using pay.gov to pay the $58, please use WB21-65 as the Fee Type Number.

Any other questions or concerns please feel free to contact me.

Have a nice day,
Alexander Dusenberry

Hello Alexander,

I hope this email finds you and your family well. Simon and I are hoping to add another research assistant to our project to assist us. Since our last RA request coincided with our extension request, I am writing to seek information on how to do this when we are not requesting an extension. Would it still be a formal request on Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta letter head. I understand that we should include information on the person who will be signing a confidentiality agreement (by name and place of occupation), as well as the additional payment of $58 dollars per agreement for new individuals.

Thank you and have a nice day,

Woan Foong
