PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. For purposes of this Protective Order:
 - a. “Confidential material” means information, data, documents or other material (hereinafter collectively referred to as “material”) designated as “CONFIDENTIAL,” and any material derived therefrom.
 - b. “Highly Confidential material” means material designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL,” and any material derived therefrom.
 - c. “Party” means Union Pacific Railroad Company or BNSF Railway Company.
 - d. “Proceeding” means the proceedings in STB Finance Docket No. 22218, Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company—Operating Rights—Southern Pacific Transportation Company, and any judicial review proceeding arising therefrom.
2. Any Party producing material in discovery to another Party in this Proceeding, or submitting material in pleadings or evidence in this Proceeding, that the Party believes in good faith reveals confidential material may designate such material as “CONFIDENTIAL” in accordance with paragraph 4.
3. Any Party producing material in discovery to another Party in this Proceeding, or submitting material in pleadings or evidence in this Proceeding, that the Party believes in good faith reveals shipper-specific or railroad-specific rate, cost, quantity, routing, or other competitively sensitive or proprietary material may designate such material as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” in accordance with paragraph 4.
4. The designation of material as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” shall be made as follows:
 - a. For pleadings, by imprinting the word(s) “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” on the cover page of the pleading.
 - b. For documents and other materials, by imprinting the word(s) “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” on the face of each page of a document so designated or in a similarly conspicuous location for non-document materials.
 - c. For depositions, by indicating on the record at the deposition or upon review of the deposition transcript which portions of the transcript and/or responses should be treated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential.”
 - d. For electronically stored material, either by imprinting the word(s) “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” on any disk or storage medium; including the word(s)

“Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” in the file name of a document so designated; or imprinting the words(s) “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” on the face of each page of a document so designated.

5. Confidential Material may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, to any person or entity, except to an employee, counsel, consultant, or agent of a Party to these Proceedings, or an employee of such counsel, consultant, or agent, who, before receiving access to such material, has received and read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking in the form set forth in the Undertaking for Confidential Material.
6. Highly Confidential Material may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, to any employee of a Party to these Proceedings, or to any other person or entity, except to an outside counsel or outside consultant of a Party, who, before receiving access to such material, has received and read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking in the form set forth in the Undertaking for Highly Confidential Material.
7. Confidential Material and Highly Confidential Material shall be used solely for the purposes of this Proceeding, and not for any other business, commercial, operational, or competitive purposes.
8. In the event that a Party produces material which should have been designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” and inadvertently fails to designate the material as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL,” the producing Party may notify the other parties in writing within 10 days of discovery of its inadvertent failure to make the confidentiality designation and promptly furnish properly designated material. A Party that received the material without the confidentiality designation must return the non-designated material or destroy it, as directed by the producing Party, or take such other steps as the parties agree to in writing, and must make all reasonable efforts to recover such material from any non-parties to which it may have been disclosed, and any copies made by such non-parties.
9. In the event that a Party inadvertently produces material that is protected by the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, or any other privilege, the producing Party may make a written request within a reasonable time after it discovers the inadvertent disclosure that another Party return the inadvertently produced material. A Party that received the inadvertently produced material must either return the material or destroy it immediately upon receipt of the written request, as directed by the producing Party. By returning or destroying the material, the receiving Party is not conceding that the material is privileged and is not waiving its right to later challenge the substantive privilege claim, provided that it may not challenge the privilege claim by arguing that the inadvertent production waived the privilege.
10. No Party may include Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material in any pleading, brief, discovery request or response, or other document submitted to the Board, unless the pleading or other document is submitted under seal, in a package clearly marked on the outside as “Confidential Materials Subject to Protective Order.” See 49 CFR 1104.14.

11. To the extent that material reflecting the terms of contracts, shipper-specific traffic data, other traffic data, or other proprietary information is produced or otherwise disclosed by a Party in this Proceedings and is held and used by the receiving person in compliance with this Protective Order, such production, disclosure, and use of the material and of the data that the material contains shall be deemed essential for the disposition of this and any related proceedings and shall not be deemed a violation of 49 U.S.C. §§ 11323, 11904, or any other relevant provision of the ICC Termination Act of 1995.
12. If any Party intends to use Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material at a Board hearing or mediation in this Proceeding, or in any judicial review proceeding arising herefrom, the party so intending shall submit any proposed exhibits or other documents setting forth or revealing such Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material to the Board, the mediator, or the court, as appropriate, with a written request that the Board, the mediator, or the court: (a) restrict attendance at the hearings or mediation sessions during discussion of such Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material and (b) restrict access to the portion of the record or briefs reflecting discussion of such Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order.
13. If any Party intends to use Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material in the course of any deposition in this proceeding, the Party so intending shall so advise counsel for the Party producing the materials, counsel for the deponent, and all other counsel attending the deposition, and all portions of the deposition at which any such Confidential Material or Highly Confidential material is used shall be restricted to persons who may review the material under this Protective Order. All portions of deposition transcripts and/or exhibits that consist of or disclose Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material shall be kept under seal and treated as Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order.
14. Except for this proceeding, the Parties agree that if a Party is required by law or order of a governmental or judicial body to release “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” material produced by the other Party or copies or notes thereof as to which it obtained access pursuant to this Protective Order, the Party so required shall notify the producing Party in writing within three working days of the determination that the “CONFIDENTIAL” material, “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” material, or copies or notes are to be released, or within three working days prior to such release, whichever is soonest, to permit the producing Party the opportunity to contest the release.
15. Material that is publicly available or obtained outside of this proceeding from a person with a right to disclose it shall not be subject to this Protective Order even if the same material is produced and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” in this proceeding.

16. A “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” designation may be removed by consent of a Party who asserts the confidential, proprietary, or commercially sensitive interest, or absent such consent, by appropriate decision of the Board upon application of a Party seeking to remove such designation.
17. Each Party has a right to view its own material (i.e., material originally generated or compiled by or for that Party or if generated or compiled by another Party, the material was disclosed by the producing Party in the ordinary course of business to the other Party), even if that material has been designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” by a producing Party, without securing prior permission from the producing Party.
18. If a Party or Parties (the “filing party or parties”) file and serve upon another party or parties (the “reviewing party or parties”) a pleading or evidence containing the “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” material of the filing party or parties, the filing party or parties shall also contemporaneously provide to outside counsel for the reviewing party or parties a list of the “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” material of the filing party or parties contained in the pleading that must be redacted from the “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” version prior to review by the In-house Personnel of the reviewing party or parties.
19. Any Party that receives Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material that is not the Party’s own material, and any material derived therefrom, must be destroyed by the receiving Party, its employees, counsel, and agents at the completion of this Proceeding, except that (1) outside counsel for each Party may retain file copies of all pleadings and evidence filed with the Board; and (2) in-house counsel for each Party may retain file copies of all pleadings and evidence which they were authorized to review under this Protective Order.
20. Any Party filing with the Board a “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” pleading in this proceeding should simultaneously file a public version of the pleading.
