Urgent Issues in Freight Rail Service—Railroad Reporting

Union Pacific Railroad Company

Service Progress Report

October 6, 2023

Union Pacific EP 770(1) Service Progress Report

The Surface Transportation Board has directed Union Pacific to file a progress report to describe how the railroad's improvement actions, as outlined in the service recovery plan filed on May 20, 2022, and Revised Plan, filed on June 23, 2022, and Interim Update, filed on December 2, 2022, are leading to better service.

Below is an update on Union Pacific's Key Performance Indicator metrics:¹

Metric	Baseline (April 15, 2022)	Current Performance	Progress Against Baseline	Target Range	Target Midpoint
Car Velocity	177 mpd	208 mpd	+18% ↑ 3 consecutive weeks at or above target midpoint	205-210	207
Operating Inventory	201,334	176,426	-12% ↓ 44 consecutive weeks at or below target midpoint	185k-195k	190k
Cars per Carload	8.9	7.5	-16% ↓ 4 consecutive week at or below target midpoint	7.7-8.1	7.9
First Mile Last Mile ("FMLM")	90%	92%	+2 pts. ↑ 5 consecutive weeks at or above target midpoint	>91%	91%
TPC Bulk	66%	85%	+19 pts. ↑ 25 consecutive weeks at or above target midpoint	77%-85%	81%
TPC Manifest	59%	75%	+16 pts. ↑ 12 consecutive weeks at or above target midpoint	66%-73%	70%
TPC Intermodal	73%	87%	+14 pts. ↑ 3 consecutive weeks at or above target midpoint	76%-83%	80%

Locomotive Initiatives

Union Pacific's locomotive flows have stabilized the past two weeks. This is supported by our number of trains holding for power, as reported in EP 724, showing 16 in the current reporting week, while up slightly from 14 the prior reporting week, still well below the 27 trains peak during Tropical Storm Hilary and subsequent monsoons in the Southwest.

Train velocity on the network has improved by 22% since mid-April 2022. We will continue to evaluate and adjust our fleet size going forward given network fluidity, engine utilization, and projected network demand.

Crew Initiatives and Availability

Year to date, Union Pacific has graduated 1,828 employees, including 2,907 since May 6, 2022.² The train, engine, and yard ("TE&Y") training pipeline currently has 235 employees. During this reporting period,³ 82 trainees entered training, 6 trainees dropped out, and 19 trainees completed training.

¹ Current performance is based on the week ending September 29, 2023. The Target Range and Target Midpoint are those previously reported in Union Pacific's December 2022 Interim Update.

² Union Pacific has highlighted the graduation rate since the publication of the Board's May 5, 2022, Decision on Railroad Reporting.

³ These numbers cover the reporting period from September 16, 2023, to September 29, 2023.

Union Pacific currently has 138 borrow-outs deployed across the system as we continue to actively reallocate resources to match crew supply to crew demand. These geographically flexible workforce resources are critical to our efforts to support the movement of freight across the network. Our borrow-out strategy is in place to handle projected demand and to provide greater resiliency in our network when significant unanticipated events increase demand.

Union Pacific's data show the average percentage of Union Pacific's total qualified TE&Y employees available to work on a given day. Available workforce is defined as those active TE&Y employees not in a recall, bump, or training status, and those not laid off absent from their working assignment. The following chart illustrates the key drivers of availability for Union Pacific's workforce. These numbers are a percentage average of all groups of qualified TE&Y employees. The key drivers for crew availability are defined as follows: (1) Available to Work, (2) Vacation/Personal leave ("PL") – paid vacation days or Personal Leave Days of compensated absences, (3) Family Medical and Leave Absences ("FMLA"), (4) Illness – Layoff Sick, including newly implemented paid sick policy, or Layoff Sickness in Family, and (5) Other – all other layoff categories including HP (Health and Medical), Bereavement Leave, Missed Call, Layoff Personal Reasons, No Show, or layoff on call, among others.
