¹ As part of our work to manage the recent changes in sick leave and scheduled work for agreement employees, Union Pacific analyzed and recategorized some 2019 - present data subsets capturing our TE&Y workforce. The recategorization was necessary because those data subsets included boards with employees not on active status. Union Pacific has now corrected the data logic for its STB reporting. Under the corrected logic, Union Pacific exceeded its 2023 T&E labor force target in July 2023 (rather than May 2023 under the uncorrected logic).
