SECOND JOINT MOTION TO POSTPONE BRIEFING ON DAMAGES ARGUMENTS

Sanimax USA LLC (“Sanimax”) and Union Pacific Railroad Company (“UP”) jointly submit this request to postpone briefing on the parties’ damages arguments and evidence by an additional thirty (30) days. On December 15, 2023, the Surface Transportation Board (“the Board”) approved the parties’ first joint motion to postpone the briefing schedule directed by the Board’s decision on November 3, 2023, by thirty (30) days to permit the parties time for negotiations. The parties continue to conduct negotiations, and both Sanimax and UP believe that progress is being made that potentially could resolve the dispute. The parties believe that postponing the damages arguments and evidence briefing by an additional thirty (30) days will give the parties time to complete their negotiations and hopefully reach a resolution of this matter.

For the foregoing reason, Sanimax and UP respectfully request the Board postpone the briefing deadlines and propose the following schedule:

- Sanimax shall present its damages arguments and evidence by February 16, 2024.
- UP may respond to Sanimax’s damages arguments and evidence by March 18, 2024.¹

¹ March 18, 2024 is the first business following Sunday, March 17, 2024 (30 days from February 16, 2024).

Sanimax and UP will advise the Board promptly if they reach a resolution of their dispute.

Date filed: January 12, 2024

Respectfully submitted,
