Hi Kevin, I preemptively cancelled NEXT week's call (12/27) due to the holidays. Tomorrow's meeting should still be on the calendar, but OEA does not have anything to discuss so I will cancel it if I don't hear otherwise from you or others on the UP team in the next hour. I also just want to call to your attention to the email that Glenda just distributed to the consulting parties – it only went to you as the primary point of contact for UP – heads up so you can forward to others as needed.

Thanks,

Maggie Buckley

Hi Maggie:

I will definitely update you on the two items you point out below (stray pipe and timing of first inspection). I am waiting on some information but should have that back to you shortly.

Also, there was some confusion about tomorrow's call. We got a cancellation notice, but some indicated that the cancellation was recalled. So, we are going on the assumption that we will not have a meeting tomorrow, (which actually works well for our side, there will be a couple not available).

Thanks,

Subject: PIRATE 12/6 Meeting Notes

 PROCEED WITH CAUTION - This email was sent from outside the Company ***

Good afternoon,

Brief notes from our PIRATE call on December 6th are included in this email for your records (my apologies for the delay). Kevin, if you have any update on the first action item listed below, we would appreciate it.

Attendees: Adam Assenza (OEA), Alan Tabachnick (OEA), Kevin Rice (UP), Ray Johnson (UP), Tanya Spratt (UP), Betsi Phoebus (Jacobs), Maggie Buckley (Jacobs)

Action items:

- Kevin will reach out to adjacent landowners to try to determine where the corrugated drainage pipe in the main line ROW came from. He will also inquire with their contractor (CNR) about options for removal of the pipe and circle back with OEA to confirm methodology. Jacobs will provide an archaeological monitor for the removal.
- OEA/Jacobs to provide guidance on continuation of security patrols before the end of the week. UP's contractor (CNR) is ready to begin the inspections and fix the downed fence as soon as guidance from OEA is received.

Other outcomes: Alan provided a status update on the damage assessment. OEA is soliciting input from GRIC and SHPO on the methodology for the damage assessment and is awaiting input from other consulting parties as requested by December 15th. Jacobs will then revise the work plan and recirculate for consulting party review with the goal of getting agreement from the consulting parties on the plan by mid-January.

Thank you,
