ATTORNEYS FOR WATCO HOLDINGS, INC.

Dated: June 20, 2025

BEFORE THE SURFACE TRANSPORTATION BOARD

FD 36843

WATCO HOLDINGS, INC.
— ACQUISITION OF CONTROL EXEMPTION — GREAT LAKES CENTRAL RAILROAD, INC.

MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to 49 C.F.R. § 1104.14(b), Watco Holdings, Inc. (“Watco”) hereby requests that the Board issue a Protective Order sealing and prohibiting disclosure of certain materials requested by the Board and relating to an acquisition of control exemption filed by Watco in the above referenced proceeding.

On March 6, 2025, Watco filed a petition for exemption to acquire control of Great Lakes Central Railroad, Inc. (“GLC”), an existing Class III carrier operating entirely in the State of Michigan. Watco’s acquisition of control of GLC would have qualified for the Board’s notice of exemption procedures but for the fact that GLC has one existing connection with the Ann Arbor Railroad, Inc. (“AA”), an existing Watco subsidiary. By order served on May 30, 2025 (the “Order”), the Board instituted a proceeding in this docket under 49 U.S.C. § 10502(b), seeking additional information from Watco regarding such issues as competitive effects of the acquisition and specifics regarding GLC’s rail system.

Concurrent with this motion, Watco is providing the Board with the information requested in the Order. Watco deems a sizeable portion of the information sought in the Order to be of a confidential or proprietary nature.

Specifically, information pertaining to an existing interchange commitment found in an agreement between AA and Norfolk Southern Railway Company (“NSR”), along with Watco’s assessment of the competitive situation faced by GLC and AA, and traffic volume data, all include information that Watco does not deem to be public. Release of the confidential information to the public would harm the competitive interest of Watco in meeting the public convenience and necessity of continued rail service on GLC and AA.

The proposed protective order will enable Watco to file the information requested by the Board under seal, protecting it from public disclosure, and permitting interested parties upon appropriate request to obtain access to the information, subject to adherence to the terms of an undertaking. The proposed protective order is consistent with other protective orders previously issued by the Board in other proceedings. See, e.g. The Cincinnati Railway Company – Modified Rail Certificate, FD 36491 (STB served Mar. 30, 2021). Accordingly, Watco hereby moves for the Board to enter a protective order (in the form set forth in the appendix hereto and including the forms of confidentiality undertakings that are appended to it) in this proceeding pursuant to 49 C.F.R. § 1104.14(b).

Respectfully submitted,

By: /s/ R. A. Wimbish

2. If any party to these Proceedings determines that any part of a document it submits, discovery request it propounds, or a discovery response it produces, or a transcript of a deposition or hearing in which it participates, or of a pleading or other paper to be submitted, filed or served in these Proceedings contains Confidential Information or consists of Confidential Documents, then that party may designate and stamp such Confidential Information and Confidential Documents as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Any information or documents designated or stamped as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be handled as provided for hereinafter.

7. Designated Material may not be used for any purposes, including without limitation any business, commercial or competitive purposes, other than the preparation and presentation of evidence and argument in the notice of exemption filed in FD 36843, and any related proceedings before the Surface Transportation Board, and/or any judicial review proceedings in connection with FD 36843, and/or with any related proceedings.
8. Any party who receives Designated Material in discovery shall destroy such materials and any notes or documents reflecting such materials (other than file copies of pleadings or other documents filed with the Board and retained by outside counsel for a party to these Proceedings) at the earlier of: (1) such time as the party receiving the materials withdraws from these Proceedings, or (2) the completion of these Proceedings including any petitions for reconsideration, appeals, or remands.
9. No party may include Designated Material in any pleading, brief, discovery request or response, or other document submitted to the Board, unless the pleading or other document is submitted under seal, in a package clearly marked on the outside as “Confidential Materials Subject to Protective Order.” See 49 CFR § 1104.14. All pleadings and other documents so submitted shall be kept confidential by the Board and shall not be placed in the public docket in these Proceedings except by order of the Board.

10. No party may include Designated Material in any pleading, brief, discovery request or response, or other document submitted to any forum other than this Board in these Proceedings unless (1) the pleading or other document is submitted under seal in accordance with a protective order that requires the pleading or other document to be kept confidential by that tribunal and not be placed in the public docket in the proceeding, or (2) the pleading or other document is submitted in a sealed package clearly marked, "Confidential Materials Subject to Request for Protective Order," and is accompanied by a motion to that tribunal requesting issuance of a protective order that would require the pleading or other document be kept confidential and not be placed in the public docket in the proceeding, and requesting that if the motion for protective order is not issued by that tribunal, the pleading or other document be returned to the filing party.
11. No party may present or otherwise use any Designated Material at a Board hearing in these Proceedings, unless that party has previously submitted, under seal, all proposed exhibits and other documents containing or reflecting such Designated Material to the Board, and has accompanied such submission with a written request that the Board (a) restrict attendance at the hearing during any discussion of such Designated Material, and (b) restrict access to any portion of the record or briefs reflecting discussion of such Designated Material in accordance with this Protective Order.
12. If any party intends to use any Designated Material in the course of any deposition in these Proceedings, that party shall so advise counsel for the party producing the Designated Material, counsel for the deponent, and all other counsel attending the deposition. Attendance at any portion of the deposition at which any Designated Material is used or discussed shall be restricted to persons who may review that material under the terms of this Protective Order. All portions of deposition transcripts or exhibits that consist of, refer to, or otherwise disclose Designated Material shall be filed under seal and be otherwise handled as provided in Paragraph 9 of this Protective Order.
13. To the extent that materials reflecting Confidential Information are produced by a party to these Proceedings, and are held and/or used by the receiving person in compliance with Paragraphs 1, 2 or 3 above, such production, disclosure, holding, and use of the materials and of the data that the materials contain are deemed essential for the disposition of these and any related proceedings and will not be deemed a violation of 49 U.S.C. § 11904 or of any other relevant provision of the ICC Termination Act of 1995.
14. Any party that files with the Board a document containing Confidential

16. Nothing in this Protective Order restricts the right of any party to disclose voluntarily any Confidential Information originated by that party, or to disclose voluntarily any Confidential Documents originated by that party, if such Confidential Information or Confidential Documents do not contain or reflect any Confidential Information originated by any other party.
