Topic: Docket No. FD 30800, Union Pacific Corp., et al.—Control—
Missouri-Kansas-Texas R.R., et al.; FD 30800 (Sub-No. 22), The Kansas City
Southern Ry. Co.—Trackage Rights—Over Missouri Pacific R.R. Co. and Missouri-Kansas-Texas R.R. Co.

Summary of the Matters Discussed, Prepared by Acting General Counsel Anika Cooper:

In this matter, Kansas City Southern Railway (KCSR) filed a petition for an order declaring that certain grain traffic originated by Canadian Pacific Railway and interchanged to KCSR at Kansas City is eligible for movement over certain lines owned by Union Pacific Railroad Co. (UP) under the terms of a 1988 agreement approved by the Board as part of a 1988 merger. UP filed a reply to which KCSR filed a rebuttal. The Board then requested supplemental briefing, with UP and KCSR each filing supplemental briefs and replies.

At this meeting, Board members and staff discussed the procedural history, relevant statutes and precedent, and the parties' arguments in connection with the Board's consideration of the petition.
