NOTICE OF INTENT TO PARTICIPATE

The Railway Supply Institute (“RSI”) hereby gives notice of its intent to participate in the above-referenced proceeding as its interests may appear. RSI is an international trade association representing the interests of railroad equipment suppliers across North America. RSI’s members—of which there are over 160—sustain the North American rail network and represent the full supply chain for the railroad system. Our membership comprises locomotive, freight, and passenger railcar manufacturers; railcar owners and lessors; mechanical systems and components suppliers; railway measurement and maintenance systems; and communications and signaling suppliers. RSI members build almost every railcar and own approximately 70 percent of freight railcars operating on the North American rail system. The domestic railway supply industry has been a dynamic and vital part of the U.S. economy for nearly 200 years, encompassing more than 682,000 direct, indirect, and induced jobs across all 50 states.

RSI requests that the undersigned counsel be placed on the service list for this proceeding. RSI consents to e-mail service of all documents in this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,
