Re: Docket No. FD 36873, Union Pacific Corp., et al.—Control—Norfolk Southern Corp., et al.

Dear Chief of Case Administration:

Norfolk Southern Corporation and Norfolk Southern Railway Company (collectively, “Norfolk Southern”) are producing documents responsive to the Surface Transportation Board’s Decision No. 13 in the above-referenced docket. The documents have been marked NS_STB_00000001 to NS_STB_00001483 and are being submitted along with this filing.

In compliance with Decision No. 13, Norfolk Southern is providing a production log that contains descriptive information about each produced document including each document’s title, estimated date, author(s), and recipients. The production log contains an appendix setting forth each author and recipient’s job title and company affiliation to the extent known. Norfolk Southern is also providing a privilege log that lists documents redacted or withheld and includes information on the privilege claim, the addressees and recipients, and subject matter. All documents listed on the privilege log are in the possession, custody, and control of Norfolk Southern, counsel for Norfolk Southern, and the respective authors and recipients. The privilege log contains an appendix of all privileged actors and an appendix of each author and recipient’s job title and company affiliation to the extent known.

The production log and privilege log have been designated Confidential pursuant to the protective order in this proceeding entered on August 5, 2025 (“Protective Order”) in Decision No. 1.
