NOTICE OF INTENT TO PARTICIPATE

The Shipping Association of New York and New Jersey ("SANYNJ"), also known as the New York Shipping Association, Inc. ("NYSA"), located at 333 Thornall Street, Suite 3A, Edison, New Jersey, 08837, by its attorneys The Lambos Firm, LLP submits this Notice of Intent to Participate in the above-referenced proceeding as a Party of Record.

SANYNJ is the multiemployer collective bargaining representative of its members, which are marine-terminal operators, ocean carriers, stevedoring companies, and port security companies operating in the Port of New York and New Jersey ("PONYNJ"). SANYNJ and the International Longshoremen's Association, negotiate and administer on behalf of their respective member-companies and affiliated locals the "NYSA-ILA CBA." The NYSA-ILA CBA is a collective bargaining agreement that establishes the local terms and conditions of employment for longshore and related craft workers employed by NYSA's members and represented by certain affiliated ILA locals in the PONYNJ. NYSA administers this labor contract on behalf of its members that employ approximately 4,320 registered longshore, maintenance, and checker craft workers. In addition, SANYNJ also negotiates and administers along with Port Police & Guards Union, Local 1456, a collective bargaining agreement that governs the terms and conditions of employment for approximately 300 port security officers in the PONYNJ. ILA-represented and PPGU-represented workers in the PONYNJ working for SANYNJ member companies perform work in rail yards facilitating inland intermodal cargo operations. In addition, certain SANYNJ members are ocean carriers that contract for inland rail transportation for cargo transported to the PONYNJ in the foreign commerce of the United States. As such, SANYNJ's interest in this matter is significant.
