Re: Lehigh Valley Rail Management, LLC - Abandonment Exemption - in Cambria County, PA
STB Docket No. AB 1265X
Reply to Petition to Reopen and Reconsider

Dear Ms. Brown:

Lehigh Valley Rail Management, LLC ("LVRM") files this letter in reply to the Petition to Reopen and Reconsider filed by Cambria County Conservation and Recreation Authority ("CCCRA") docketed by the Board on July 17, 2019.

CCCRA seeks to reopen the Board's decision of June 25, 2019, denying CCCRA's request for a Notice of Interim Trail Use ("NITU") for failure of its Statement of Willingness to meet all of the Board's requirements. The abandonment in this proceeding is subject to a public use condition, and the abandonment has not been consummated. Accordingly, there is no impediment to a late-filed or late-issued NITU. As previously indicated to the Board, LVRM is willing to negotiate an interim trail use agreement with CCCRA.

Accordingly, LVRM does not oppose the petition to reopen and reconsider, nor does it oppose the imposition of a NITU in favor of CCCRA to the extent that CCCRA has now satisfied all of the Board's requirements.
