Docket No. NOR 42144

UTC made its full document production to UP on April 6, 2017. The other Tank Car Owners have been working to compile and prepare discovery materials for production to Defendant Union Pacific Railroad Company (“UP”) in accordance with the order served October 13, 2016, as discussed at the discovery status conference held April 19, 2017. The other Tank Car Owners have not identified any issues that at this time appear likely to prevent them from being able to complete document production within the time period discussed at the discovery status conference.

Respectfully submitted,
