Re: Conrail - Abandonment Exemption - in Hudson
County, N.J., AB 167 (Sub-no. 1189X)
and related proceedings AB 55-686X
and AB 290-306X

Request for Clarification

Dear Ms. Brown:

This Board entered the protective order in this proceeding on motion of CNJ Railroad (CNJ), despite the City's objection that the protective order was incompatible with local open records statutes. CNJ, working with a shipper, produced a verified statement, and designated the entire statement highly confidential. Letter, CNJ to STB, AB 167-1189X, filed April 30, 2015, p.3. CNJ furnished the statement as so designated to counsel for the City in accordance with the protective order. City filed the CNJ-furnished statement in accordance with the protective order. City understands that CNJ views the statement as including information of commercial value not only to the shipper but also to CNJ. The LLCs moved to unseal the entire document. This Board directed the City to produce an unredacted confidential version of the statement and a redacted public version. Decision served 2 Nov. 2015 at p. 5.

In general, the party which produces and designates evidence as highly confidential is in the best position to provide unredacted confidential copies and redacted public versions in response to this Board's decision upon a motion to unseal. In any event, the party (CNJ) that originally produced the statement at issue here and which originally designated it as highly confidential is in a superior position to ascertain what information continues to merit confidential treatment per this Board's Decision. Furthermore, having the party that produced the statement responsible for preparing the redacted public version relieves the City (which opposed the protective order in the first instance) and its attorneys from liability for inadvertently releasing to the public information in the shipper statement that CNJ (or the shipper) view as continuing to merit confidential treatment under this Board's orders.

Alternatively, City requests that counsel for the LLCs prepare the redacted public version of the statement. Counsel for the LLCs has a copy of the entire statement, is the proponent of unsealing it, and is in as good a position as counsel for the City in terms of evaluating what should be redacted in accordance with this Board's orders. If the party claiming confidential treatment (CNJ) is not the party that prepares the redaction, then the proponent of disclosure (LLCs) should be liable for inadvertent disclosure of confidential information, not innocent bystanders (City).

In sum, the City requests clarification that CNJ is the party responsible for producing a redacted public version of the statement and unredacted confidential version of the statement given that City neither produced the original statement nor designated any portion of it for confidential or highly confidential treatment.

Counsel for City is authorized to state that CNJ supports this request for clarification.

Respectfully,
