If the GLBT is going to take my 40 year home and all the land that belongs to my husband's family, our church, the cemetery where my father in law is buried and our entire family farm, I think it is only fair that we should know who the investors in this waste of good farmland are. How can anyone in good faith hide this information??? So many people have had their lives turned upside down for this project that is not wanted by anyone or needed. It would be necessary that we know who the investors are. Please do not allow GLBT to hide this information from the thousands affected by this debacle.
