Randy -

Parties have until close-of-business today (Monday, December 12, 2011) to file petitions requesting that the Board reconsider its decision. As of this afternoon, no petitions have been received.

Under the Hobbs Act (28 U.S.C. 2321 et seq.), parties have until 60 days from the service date of a Board decision (in this case, 60 days from November 21, 2011) to challenge the decision in the U.S. courts of appeals. At this time, we are not aware of any filed court challenges.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

Thanks,

Dave

Subject: Port Mackenzie Record of Decision

Dear Mr. Navecky:

Please advise whether the STB's decision to issue the Record of Decision in the NEPA process is now final with no appeals being filed, or whether the appeal period is still open. Thanks,

Randy
