Hi Matt,

Per your request, the map of the river and stream crossings was prepared and is posted on the Tongue River EIS website at the following location: http://www.tonguerivereis.com/documents/WaterCrossings_ALL.pdf

If you zoom in about 300% or 400%, you can see the names of the water crossings pretty well. We also have a table of the crossings with latitude/longitude if you think it would be helpful.

Please let us know if you have any questions.
