Lou -

Exhibit 1 requires some clarification:

1. On May 28, 2015, the railroad representatives met with Jerry Hounshel, a county commissioner for Jackson County, IN. Mr. Hounshel is also identified as the official representing New Farmington, Retreat and Crothersville, IN in the next three entries. Retreat and New Farmington are unincorporated areas within the Mr. Hounshel's district. If Mr. Hounshel was officially representing Retreat and New Farmington, please state this fact. The Town of Crothersville, however, is incorporated and appears to have its own elected council and it's unclear why Mr. Hounshel was consulted and not a representative of the town council. Did the town council designate Mr. Hounshel to represent the town in these matters? Please clarify.
2. On May 28, 2015, the railroad representatives met with Larry Blevins, a county commissioner for Scott County, IN. Mr. Blevins is also identified as the official representing Vienna and Underwood, IN in the next two entries. Vienna and Underwood are unincorporated areas in Scott County. If Mr. Blevins was officially representing Vienna and Underwood, please state this fact.
3. On May 26, 2015, the rail representatives met with Jack Coffman, President, Clark County, IN Commissioners. In four entries on the exhibit, Mr. Coffman is identified as the official representing Henryville, Memphis, Sellersburg and Cementville, IN. Henryville, Memphis and Cementville appear to be unincorporated areas within Clark County. If Mr. Coffman was officially representing Henryville, Memphis and Cementville, please state this fact. The Town of Sellersburg, however, is incorporated and appears to have its own elected council and it's unclear why Mr. Coffman was consulted and not a representative of the town council. Did the town council designate Mr. Coffman to represent the town in these matters? Please clarify.

Thanks,

Dave
