I've, since I moved here, I've been here 16 years and the railroad has been getting more, and more, more trains, now that the commuter line, my concern is there's been more trains and longer trains, my concern is that I have seen ambulances stuck in front of a railroad, which may be life or death and they can't get through because of the trains there, stops, backs up, whatever and there's a lot of them. Same thing with the police department, same thing with, we just had a flood here a couple of weeks ago and trains are just standing there. You can't get through, you can't get around from Des Plaines downtown all the way through here, it's just a mess. When I first originally came here, they told me there would be no more than one or two trains or a light load if that, they said they did not foresee any kind of a lot of trains, that's why I bought the house. My neighbors in the back, have more problems because of the trains. So thank you very much. Bye
