Dear Board, James JUNE 15

There are only a few days remaining to express my concerns about the railroad's petition. I have attempted to share all the reasons that are applicable. The emotional stress cannot be measured. The anxiety of waiting for your answer cannot be measured. I can only keep saying that God will guide you and decide to deny the railroad petition. We love our pastoral way of life. We love the beauty of God's glory that surrounds us. We have planted our crops (manipulating) and wait for the harvest. We are running through our own will, doing our own way, life. Set my heart at liberty

NOTE: When an individual chooses to submit an Environmental Comment or some Other Submission, his or her personal contact information is considered public information and is shared with and outside of STB without additional authorization.
