Hi David:

I was out of the country for parts of the last two weeks. What's new on the GLBRR proposal. I saw you extended the public comment period by a month.

Specifically....

How many comments has STB received thus far?

Are they still running about 99 percent opposed to railroad?

I know Norfolk & Southern formally opposed project, and Union Pacific stated publicly that it's opposed. Has any other railroad weighed in (either in writing or informally)?

Have any elected officials from US House or Senate from IL, IN or WS weighed in?

Any other local officials from IL weigh in for or against?

I am attending a public meeting Monday so I would appreciate the latest info ASAP.

Thanks,

Rick Bryant
