

The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched. They must be felt within the heart. - Helen Keller

August 30, 2004

61
1022
RSP

Dear Sirs, Madam,
I am strongly apposed to the proposal from Trane rail to build a Transfer station in Wilmington, Mass. on the site of The Clinchfield Company. The noise and emission from Trucks will be very harmful for residents of North Woburn, and Wilmington. This area has many people over 65 living here.

Please consider the health hazards of such a project.

Sincerely,
Rose M Steggs
5 SPRING GARDEN TERRACE
WOBURN, MASS 01801
National Federation of the Blind