I like what Vulcan promises for the Quilici Area especially the historic sites
as the largest owner of a cemetery lot in historic Quilici Cemetery. I look forward to the new "foundational" activity.

3. Please use this space for additional comments or suggestions.

As a World War II Veteran I am Confused:-
"A Jap Co is coming to Baylor County & the State & local Taxpayers are building a railroad for them..
Here comes an "All American Company" to Medicine City.
to build "their own railroad" & pay lots of taxes.
We should welcome this - Instead of throwing rocks @ them - "lets sell those rocks" - Let us think it as this is the best thing to happen
for Medicine Ctn. Thanks.

Thank you for your comments.
