I'm writing about docket # FD 3595

I am apposed to the Great Lake Basin Railroad wanting to go through our County - Winnebago, Ill.

We live west of Rockton, Ill and north of Shiloh, Ill.

If the railroad go there, our small community of Shiloh will probably closed the school our grandchildren attend.

It will cross or closed the roads we travel daily to get to Rockton, Loves Park, Rockford, Ill and Beloit, Wisconsin.

Why is it that Chicago has or had railroads that go through there can't be used as it is a lot of property where the railroad wants to be in Indiana.

If the railroad goes through our health service, fire services, kids busing will be extremely effected for the worst.

We also have the wetlands and marshes out here that will be affected also

Thank you
