

Submission Number: FD-30186-000121

Received: 8/3/2015 8:59:02 PM

Commenter: Donna Murphy

Organization:

State: Oregon

Agency: Surface Transportation Board

Initiative: Tongue River Railroad

Submission Text

I am concerned with business interests fouling our Earth with disregard for people, plants, animals, and the longevity of humans' habitat. The science is quite clear: fossil fuels must stay in the ground in order to avoid climate change. We must not let greed compromise that fact. I do not want trains running through my neighborhood on their way to a Northwest port. I want fossil fuels kept underground, and renewable energy sources used. Thank you.