Subject: UBR Comment Submission Questions

Hi Josh, Danielle, and Vicki,

I had a few questions relating to the scoping comment deadline. We want to make sure not to goof up and inadvertently miss it.

- What time/time zone will comments stop being accepted on Monday, August 5th?
- If we mail a CD with references, will it be accepted/not accepted into the record based on the postmark or the receipt date?
- Is there anything else we should be aware of in order to make the submission of our comments easiest on y'all's end?

Very nice to meet you all last week and thanks again for all of your efforts; I found the public meeting in Salt Lake to be very well done and very useful,

Best and thanks as always,

Ryan
