

Other Submissions

I have an easy solution - have the railroad build an underground passage at the railroads expense - not the taxpayers - if the railroad wants it let them pay for it. This is the only viable solution that works for all