Re: Finance Docket No. 35116 – RJ Corman Railroad Company/Pennsylvania Lines,
Inc. – Construction and Operation Exemption – In Clearfield County, PA

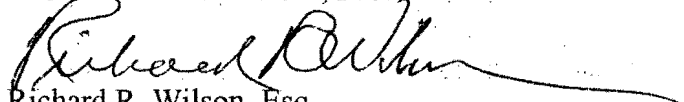

Dear Ms. Rutson:

I am writing to you on behalf of my client, Resource Recovery, LLC, Inc. in connection with the above captioned proceeding. As you know, Resource Recovery, LLC is one of the shippers whose facilities will be served by the new rail line proposed by RJ Corman – Pennsylvania Lines, Inc. This proposed line has been under environmental review by your section since 2008.

My client has received informal inquiries from potential customers regarding the possible start up date for its facilities and the availability of rail service at those facilities. These potential customers have multiyear planning time frames and my client wishes to determine a realistic projection of the time necessary to conclude the Board's environmental review process for purposes of estimating a regulatory decision date. My client understands that the regulatory process for each proceeding is different and that any estimate by you would only be an approximation. Nonetheless, any assistance you could provide in this regard would be most appreciated.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD R. WILSON, P.C.
