Hi Barb,

This morning I spoke with Catherine Glidden at STB regarding the subject archaeological survey report. Ms. Glidden contacted me to discuss the subject report and indicated that she expects to need some additional time to review it. STB would like to hear our thoughts/comments and discuss their own with us further before providing their comments.

As I mentioned on Wednesday, in addition to reviewing it myself, I've also asked the other archaeologists in our office here to review it and provide me with their comments. I intend to compile these and share them with STB per their request. As such, I will be unable to provide our comments on the report to you today. Once we've had a chance to discuss the report further with Ms. Glidden, I expect that you will receive comments from both SHPO and STB around the same time.

Thanks for your understanding and patience.

Best regards,
Shina
