

Phillis Johnson-Ball

I'm not opposed to progress but put the train underground in a tunnel for the towns downtown areas. This is a long term investment 100+ years. Float bonds to pay for it if need be. The population will be 400+ million before we know it and we need more products but we can't put these villages in grid lock with train traffic so put the trains in tunnels like they do in other countries.

Shepherd
555 Oak Knoll Road
Barrington Hills, IL 60010