RE: Union Pacific Railroad Company -- Petition For Declaratory Order -- Unilaterally Imposed Interchange Charges
STB Docket No. 42052 204576

Dear: Secretary Williams:

In accord with the Board's order issued in this proceeding on January 14, 2002, Kansas City Southern Railway Company ("KCS") hereby serves notice of its intent to participate in this proceeding.

Representative: KCS will be represented in this matter by:

W. James Wochner, Jr., Esquire
Vice President and General Solicitor
Kansas City Southern Railway Company
114 West 11th Street
Kansas City, MO 64105.

Representative's Background and Experience: Mr. Wochner, in addition to his many years of experience as an in-house attorney for KCS, previously served for approximately 2 years as KCS' Senior Vice President of Marketing. In both that position and as General Solicitor at KCS, Mr. Wochner has been involved in a variety of railroad operating issues, including the interchange of traffic between railroads.

KCS's Position and Recommendations on the Issues: At this time, KCS is not taking a position on the subject of this proceeding and has no preliminary recommendations to make to the Board or to AAR. Rather, KCS intends to participate in this proceeding and to pursue its interests as appropriate.

A copy of this notice is also enclosed for the Board's files, and two copies of the notice have been mailed today to the Association of American Railroads, as specified in the Board's January 14, 2002 order. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice by appropriate notation on the extra copy hereof that is enclosed for that purpose, and return that second copy to the person delivering it for return to me.

Sincerely,
