Request for Production of Documents and Records

I. Introduction

This is a request for production of documents and records served pursuant to 49 CFR 1114.30, the U.S. Surface Transportation Board's regulations on such discovery. Those regulations provide for any party to a proceeding to request the production of certain documents from another party.

GBCPA requests an inventory of the documents to be provided pursuant to this request, with an estimate of duplication costs, and that a representative of Bayport Industries contact Jim Blackburn at Blackburn Carter within the response period to further discuss specifics of the time and manner of production.

A response is due to the law office of Blackburn & Carter within 30 days, by 5:00pm on March 7, 2003.

DEFINITIONS

- (A) The Port of Houston Authority ("PHA") has designed a container port at the Pasadena/Bayport Industrial District area and this port is partially proposed to be in the City of Pasadena and partially in the City of Seabrook and south of the Bayport channel. PHA has filed, for this proposed PHA container port, a permit application with the Army Corps of Engineers ("COE") and a Draft Environmental Impact Statement ("DEIS") has been researched and produced. This proposed PHA/Bayport container port will be referred to herein as "Bayport Container Terminal," which includes all references to its status as the project site.
- (B) ("BNSF") The Burlington Northern-Santa Fe Railway Company, a petitioner in this proceeding.
- (C) ("Bayport Industries") The four chemical producing partners recognized as intervenors in this proceeding: ATOFINA Petrochemicals, Inc. (ATOFINA), Basell USA Inc., Equistar Chemicals, LP, and Lyondell Chemical Company. Herein, Bayport Industries refers to any one of the four intervenors listed above.

- (D) ("SJR") San Jacinto Limited Partnership, a petitioner in this proceeding, consisting of one general partner, Bay Rail, LLC, a subsidiary of BNSF, and several limited partners, i.e., BNSF, Basell Impact Holding Company, Bay Junction, Inc., Equistar Bayport, LLC, and Lyondell Bayport, LLC. The four latter companies are wholly owned subsidiaries of the Bayport Industries. For purposes here, reference to one of the Bayport Industries constitutes a reference to their subsidiary or holding company as part of SJR.
- (E) ("UP") Union Pacific Railroad Company, a party to this proceeding.
- (F) ("Bayport Loop") The destination of the proposed construction in this proceeding. The UP tracks currently serving the Bayport Industries south of the Union Pacific's Strang Yard in La Porte, TX.
- (G) ("GBCPA") The Galveston Bay Conservation and Preservation Association, a party to this proceeding.
- (H) ("PTRA") The Port Terminal Railroad Association.
- (I) ("Documents") As used herein, the term "document" or "documents" means: any written or graphic matter of every kind and description, however produced or reproduced by any process or written and/or produced by hand, whether final or draft, original or reproduction, whether in the actual or constructive possession or control of the party, including, but not limited to, all hand-written, copies of all kinds, regardless of origin, including all correspondence, memoranda, notes of memoranda understandings reports, financial reports and statements, checks, notes, letters, telegrams, messages (including tape recordings and reports of telephone conversations and conferences), studies, analyses, comparisons, demands, data, schedules, shop orders, recordings, papers, data sheets, publications, books, magazines, newspapers, booklets, circulars, brochures, bulletins, notices, instructions, drafts, notebooks, diaries, sketches, diagrams, charts, working papers, forms, manuals, lists, minutes, computer hard drives, computer floppy disks, computer hard disks, computer laser disks, computer tapes, CD-ROM's, computer cards, electronic mail, and other communications including inter-office and intra office communications, surveys, photographs, drawings, charts, notes of meetings, conversations, records of conversations, records, work papers, invoices, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, statements of earnings, checks, statements of net worth, statements of operation, auditor reports, financial reports and summaries, statements of lists of assets, agreements, contracts, expense records, opinions, legal opinions, expert opinions, expert reports, accounts payable ledgers, accounts receivable ledgers appraisals, audit work papers, minutes of meetings, consultations and any ancillary materials, whether executed or unexecuted, reports and/or summaries of investigations or opinions, all reports of consultants, engineering reports and municipal, county, state, federal or other governmental ordinances, laws or statutes and, any types of official or unofficial trade or organization publications or standards, any data compilation or information resources from which information can be obtained or transferred, and any changes and amendments of any of the foregoing categories of documents including any and all drafts, alterations and/or modifications.

- (J) ("dating from") Establishes a time period for the date of the document, if any.
- (K) ("regarding") Mentioning the subject matter of the request.
- (L) ("this proceeding") Finance Docket Number 34079.

II. Request

Public safety is an issue in this proceeding. GBCPA hereby requests all documents in both written and electronic form pertaining to:

- a. Accidents that have occurred in the Houston area on your railroad involving the transport of the following chemicals and/ or their derivatives: ethylene oxide, propylene oxide, isobutylene, monoethanolamine, glycol ethers, ethylene glycol, and alcohols.
- b. The names of any hazardous materials or chemicals in addition to the ones named above in part a, that are transported by you from the Bayport Industrial Loop.
