MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to 49 C.F.R. § 1104.14, James E. Howard, Chapter 11 Trustee of Bangor and Aroostook Railroad Company, Debtor (the "Trustee")¹ hereby submits this Motion for Protective Order ("Motion"). For the reasons stated below, the Trustee respectfully requests that the Surface Transportation Board (the "Board") issue a protective order in the form attached hereto as Attachment A to govern the disclosure and use of confidential and commercially sensitive information in these proceedings.

By decisions served on May 6, 2003, the Board ordered Canadian National Railway Company ("CN") and Fraser Papers, Inc. ("Fraser") to produce certain information sought by the Trustee in discovery. The Board's decisions specify that any confidentiality issues arising from such production should be addressed through protective orders.

The proposed protective order attached hereto is designed to address any such confidentiality issues. The proposed protective order will facilitate the disclosure of any confidential or commercially sensitive information to the Trustee pursuant to the Board's decisions. In addition, the proposed protective order will ensure that the confidentiality and commercial sensitivity of any such information is maintained in any pleadings that may be filed in these proceedings.

CN and Fraser have agreed to the terms of the attached protective order and have consented to this motion. CN has indicated that it anticipates forwarding responsive information to the Trustee by May 21, 2003. Fraser is still in the process of determining when it will forward responsive information to the Trustee. The Trustee requests expedited consideration of this Motion to ensure that the protective order is in place prior to production by CN and/or Fraser of any confidential or commercially sensitive information pursuant to the Board's May 6, 2003 decisions.

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, the Trustee respectfully requests that the Board adopt the proposed protective order attached hereto as Attachment A.

ATTACHMENT A

PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. For purposes of this Protective Order:

(a) "Confidential Documents" means documents and other tangible materials containing or reflecting Confidential Information.

(b) "Confidential Information" means traffic data (including but not limited to waybills, abstracts, study movement sheets, and any documents or computer tapes containing data derived from waybills, abstracts, study movement sheets, or other data bases, and cost workpapers), the identification of shippers and receivers in conjunction with shipper-specific or other traffic data, the confidential terms of contracts with shippers, confidential financial and cost data, and other confidential or proprietary business information.

(c) "Designated Material" means any documents designated or stamped as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" in accordance with paragraphs 2 or 3 of this Protective Order, and any Confidential Information contained in such documents.

(d) "Proceedings" means those before the Surface Transportation Board ("Board") in Docket No. AB-279 (Sub-No. 3), Docket No. AB-124 (Sub-No.2), and any related proceedings before the Board, and any judicial review proceedings arising from Docket No. AB-279 (Sub-No. 3), Docket No. AB-124 (Sub-No. 2) or from any related proceedings before the Board.

2. If any person or entity determines that any part of a discovery request or response, of a transcript of a deposition or hearing, or of a pleading or other paper filed or served by that person or entity in these Proceedings contains Confidential Information or consists of Confidential Documents, then that person or entity may designate and stamp such Confidential Information and Confidential Documents as "CONFIDENTIAL." Any information or documents so designated or stamped shall be handled as provided for hereinafter.

3. Any person or entity producing material in discovery to a party to these Proceedings, or submitting material in pleadings or other documents filed or served in these Proceedings, may in good faith designate and stamp particular Confidential Information, such as material containing shipper-specific rate or cost data or other competitively sensitive or proprietary information, as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL." Any information or documents so designated or stamped shall be handled as provided for hereinafter.

4. Information and documents designated or stamped as "CONFIDENTIAL" may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, to any person or entity except to an employee, counsel, consultant, or agent of a party to these Proceedings, or an employee of such counsel, consultant, or agent, who, before receiving access to such information or documents, has been given and has read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking substantially in the form set forth at Exhibit A to this Order.

5. Information and documents designated or stamped as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, to any employee of a party to these Proceedings, or to any other person or entity except to an outside counsel or outside consultant to a party to these Proceedings, or to an employee of such outside counsel or outside consultant, who, before receiving access to such information or documents, has been given and has read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking substantially in the form set forth at Exhibit B to this Order.

6. Any person or entity may challenge the designation by any other person or entity of information or documents as "CONFIDENTIAL" or as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" by filing a motion with the Board or with an administrative law judge or other officer to whom authority has been lawfully delegated by the Board to adjudicate such challenge(s).

7. Designated Material may not be used for any purposes other than these Proceedings, including without limitation any business, commercial, strategic, or competitive purpose.

8. Any party who receives Designated Material in discovery shall destroy¹ such materials and any notes or documents reflecting such materials (other than file copies of pleadings or other documents filed with the Board and retained by outside counsel for a party to these Proceedings) at the earlier of: (1) such time as the party receiving the materials withdraws from these Proceedings; or (2) the completion of these Proceedings, including any petitions for reconsideration, appeals, or remands.

9. No party may include Designated Material in any pleading, brief, discovery request or response, or other document submitted to the Board, unless the pleading or other document is submitted under seal, in a package clearly marked on the outside as "Confidential Materials Subject to Protective Order." See 49 CFR § 1104.14. All pleadings and other documents so submitted shall be kept confidential by the Board and shall not be placed in the public docket in these Proceedings except by order of the Board or of an administrative law judge or other officer in the exercise of authority lawfully delegated by the Board.

10. No party may include Designated Material in any pleading, brief, discovery request or response, or other document submitted to any forum other than this Board in these Proceedings unless (1) the pleading or other document is submitted under seal in accordance with a protective order that requires the pleading or other document to be kept confidential by that tribunal and not placed in the public docket in the proceeding, or (2) the pleading or other document is submitted in a sealed package clearly marked, "Confidential Materials Subject to Request for a Protective Order," and is accompanied by a motion to that tribunal requesting issuance of a protective order that would require the pleading or other document be kept confidential and not be placed in the public docket in the proceeding, and requesting that if the motion for protective order is not issued by that tribunal, the pleading or other document be returned to the filing party.

11. No party may present or otherwise use any Designated Material at a Board hearing in these Proceedings, unless that party has previously submitted, under seal, all proposed exhibits and other documents containing or reflecting such Designated Material to the Board, to an administrative law judge or to another officer to whom relevant authority has been lawfully delegated by the Board, and has accompanied such submission with a written request that the Board, administrative law judge or other officer (a) restrict attendance at the hearing during any discussion of such Designated Material, and (b) restrict access to any portion of the record or briefs reflecting discussion of such Designated Material in accordance with this Protective Order.

12. If any party intends to use any Designated Material in the course of any deposition in these Proceedings, that party shall so advise counsel for the person or entity producing the Designated Material, counsel for the deponent, and all other counsel attending the deposition. Attendance at any portion of the deposition at which any Designated Material is used or discussed shall be restricted to persons who may review that material under the terms of this Protective Order. All portions of deposition transcripts or exhibits that consist of, refer to, or otherwise disclose Designated Material shall be filed under seal and be otherwise handled as provided in paragraph 9 of this Protective Order.

13. All parties must comply with all of the provisions of this Protective Order unless the Board or an administrative law judge or other officer exercising authority lawfully delegated by the Board determines that good cause has been shown warranting suspension of any of the provisions herein.

14. Nothing in this Protective Order restricts the right of any person or entity to disclose voluntarily any Confidential Information originated by that person or entity, or to disclose voluntarily any Confidential Documents originated by that person or entity, if such Confidential Information or Confidential Documents do not contain or reflect any Confidential Information originated by any other person or entity, unless that person or entity has consented in writing to the disclosure.
