JOINT MOTION OF THE PARTIES TO EXTEND DISCOVERY DEADLINE

Plaintiff DHX, Inc. and Defendants Matson Navigation Company, Inc. and Horizon Lines, LLC, successor to CSX Lines, LLC ¹, hereby move for a brief extension of the deadline for completing discovery from July 14, 2003, as established by the Board's decision served May 30, 2003, to August 4, 2003.

The extension is requested to accommodate a schedule agreed to among the parties for taking depositions. Plaintiff wishes to take the depositions of two Horizon employees and three Matson employees, and defendants wish to take the depositions of four DHX employees. Counsel for the parties have conferred together and with the deponents and have agreed to a schedule that accommodates all concerned; under that schedule all depositions should be completed by August 4, 2003. The parties do not believe any further extension of the discovery deadline will be required. As ordered by the Board's decision served May 30, 2003, when discovery is complete, they will promptly confer in an effort to submit a joint proposal for a new procedural schedule.

The parties therefore respectfully request the Board to extend the deadline for completing discovery to August 4, 2003.

Respectfully submitted,

Rick A. Rude.
