STB Docket No. AB-400 (Sub-No. 4)

SEMINOLE GULF RAILWAY, L.P.
- ADVERSE ABANDONMENT - IN LEE COUNTY, FLORIDA

MOTION OF SEMINOLE GULF RAILWAY FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PROTEST AND FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Expedited Consideration Requested

Request for Extension of Time to File Protest

On June 16, 2004, Lee County, Florida ("Lee County") filed its application for adverse abandonment. Based on the application, Seminole Gulf Railway, L.P. ("SGLR") began preparing its protest, including the service of discovery. Lee County served responses on July 16, 2004, as requested. On July 23, 2004, after discovery responses had been served, Lee County submitted three new verified statements in support of its application.¹ In order that SGLR can consider the effects of these late filed statements, and will not be prejudiced in the preparation of its protest, SGLR respectfully requests that the due date for protests and comments be extended by 10 days until August 12, 2004, and that the date for Lee County's rebuttal be extended by 10 days (until August 24, 2004) as well. SGLR believes the request is reasonable and will not unduly interfere with the timely issuance of a decision on the abandonment.² See Norfolk Southern Railway Company - Abandonment Exemption - In Mecklenburg County, NC, STB Docket AB-290 (Sub-No. 247X) (served January 29, 2004). Counsel for Lee County has consented to the requested extension.³

Because its protest would otherwise be due by August 2, 2004, SGLR requests that the Board issue its decision on an expedited basis.

Request for Protective Order

As part of its protest, SGLR anticipates that it will want to identify prospective shippers with whom it has had contact about locating on the line. The identity of these shippers is commercially sensitive, and disclosure of their identities could harm SGLR's future prospects. Further, SGLR may identify sources of revenue and include license agreements which have confidential commercial terms. Public disclosure of this information could be competitively damaging. Accordingly, SGLR requests that the Board issue a protective order in accordance with 49 CFR §1104.14(b) and consistent with orders that have been entered in prior abandonment proceedings. See CSX Transportation, Inc. - Abandonment Exemption - In LaPorte, Porter and Starke Counties, IN, STB Docket No. AB-55 (Sub-No. 643X) (served April 28, 2004); Waterloo Railway Company - Adverse Abandonment - Lines of Bangor and Aroostook

² The Board should still have sufficient time to issue its decision within 110 days of the original filing.

³ CSXT was served a copy of the application but has not yet been an active participant in this proceeding. However, SGLR notified counsel for CSXT about the request, and is serving him with a copy of this motion. However, as of the time of filing, it has not heard back from CSXT yet.

Railroad Company and Van Buren Bridge Company in Aroostook County, ME, STB Docket No. AB-124 (Sub-No. 2) (served May 21, 2003). Issuance of the protective order will ensure that the Board will receive full disclosure of all relevant facts while ensuring that confidential information will be used only in connection with this proceeding and not for any other business or commercial use. A suggested form of protective order is attached as an Appendix to this Motion.⁴ Counsel for Lee County has consented to the entry of a protective order.

Again, because of the due date for protests (even if extended as requested herein), SGLR requests expedited consideration of this request so that it can prepare its protest in an appropriate form.

Respectfully submitted,

⁴ Suggested slight modifications to the language the Board has used previously in paragraph 1(b) of the protective order are shown in capitalized letters. The identities of current shippers on the line have already been disclosed in Lee County's application, and there is no need to keep their identities confidential.

APPENDIX

PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. For purposes of this Protective Order:

(a) "Confidential Documents" means documents and other tangible materials containing or reflecting Confidential Information.

(b) "Confidential Information" means traffic data (including but not limited to waybills, abstracts, study movement sheets, and any documents or computer tapes containing data derived from waybills, abstracts, study movement sheets, or other data bases, and cost workpapers); the identification of POTENTIAL shippers and receivers, in conjunction with shipper-specific or other traffic data; the confidential terms of contracts with shippers, or carriers OR LICENSEES; confidential financial and cost data; and other confidential or proprietary business or personal information.

(c) "Designated Material" means any documents designated or stamped as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" in accordance with paragraph 2 or 3 of this Protective Order and any Confidential Information contained in such materials.

(d) "Proceedings" means those before the Surface Transportation Board ("Board") concerning the application for adverse abandonment filed in STB Docket No. AB-400 (Sub-No. 4), and any related proceedings before the Board, and any judicial review proceedings arising from STB Docket No. AB-400 (Sub-No. 4) or from any related proceedings before the Board.

2. If any party to these Proceedings determines that any part of a document it submits, discovery request it propounds, discovery response it produces, transcript of a deposition or hearing in which it participates, or of a pleading or other paper to be submitted, filed, or served in these Proceedings contains Confidential Information or consists of Confidential Documents, then that party may designate and stamp such Confidential Information and Confidential Documents as "CONFIDENTIAL." Any information or documents designated or stamped as "CONFIDENTIAL" shall be handled as provided for hereinafter.

3. If any party to these Proceedings determines that any part of a document it submits, discovery request it propounds, a discovery response it produces, transcript of a deposition or hearing in which it participates, pleading or other paper to be submitted, filed, or served in these Proceedings contains shipper-specific rate or cost data; or other competitively sensitive or proprietary information, then that party may designate and stamp such Confidential Information as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL." Any information or documents so designated or stamped shall be handled as provided hereinafter.

4. Information and documents designated or stamped as "CONFIDENTIAL" may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, or to any person or entity except to an employee, counsel, consultant, or agent of a party to these Proceedings, or an employee of such counsel, consultant, or agent, who, before receiving access to such information or documents, has been given and has read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking substantially in the form set forth at Exhibit A to this Protective Order.

5. Information and documents designated or stamped as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" may not be disclosed in any way, directly or indirectly, to any employee of a party to these Proceedings, or to any other person or entity except to an outside counsel or outside consultant to a party to these proceedings, or to an employee of such outside counsel or outside counsel or outside consultant, who, before receiving access to such information or documents, has been given and has read a copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by its terms by signing a confidentiality undertaking substantially in the form set forth at Exhibit B to this Protective Order.

6. All parties must file simultaneously a public version of any Highly Confidential or Confidential submission filed with the Board whether the submission is designated a Highly Confidential Version or Confidential Version. When filing a Highly Confidential Version, the filing party does not need to file a Confidential Version with the Board, but must make available (simultaneously with the party's submission to the Board of its Highly Confidential Version) a Confidential Version reviewable by any other party's in-house counsel. The Confidential Version may be served on other parties in electronic format only. In lieu of preparing a Confidential Version, the filing party may (simultaneously with the party's submission to the Board of its Highly Confidential Version) make available to outside counsel for any other party a list of all "highly confidential" information that must be redacted from its Highly Confidential Version prior to review by in-house personnel, and outside counsel for any other party must then redact that material from the Highly Confidential Version before permitting any clients to review the submission.

7. Any party to these Proceedings may challenge the designation by any other party of information or documents as "CONFIDENTIAL" or as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" by filing a motion with the Board or with an administrative law judge or other officer to whom authority has been lawfully delegated by the Board to adjudicate such challenges.

8. Designated Material may not be used for any purposes, including without limitation any business, commercial or competitive purposes, other than the preparation and presentation of evidence and argument in STB Docket No. AB-400 (Sub-No. 4), any related proceedings before the Board, and/or any judicial review proceedings in connection with STB Docket No. AB-400 (Sub-No. 4) and/or with any related proceedings.

9. Any party who receives Designated Material in discovery shall destroy such materials and any notes or documents reflecting such materials (other than file copies of pleadings or other documents filed with the Board and retained by outside counsel for a party to these Proceedings) at the earlier of: (1) such time as the party receiving the materials withdraws from these Proceedings, or (2) the completion of these Proceedings, including any petitions for reconsideration, appeals or remands.

10. No party may include Designated Material in any pleading, brief, discovery request or response, or other document submitted to the Board, unless the pleading or other document is submitted under seal, in a package clearly marked on the outside as "Confidential Materials Subject to Protective Order." See 49 CFR 1104.14. All pleadings and other documents so submitted shall be kept confidential by the Board and shall not be placed in the public docket in these Proceedings except by order of the Board or of an administrative law judge or other officer in the exercise of authority lawfully delegated by the Board.

11. No party may include Designated Material in any pleading, brief, discovery request or response, or other document submitted to any forum other than this Board in these Proceedings unless: (1) the pleading or other document is submitted under seal in accordance with a protective order that requires the pleading or other document to be kept confidential by that tribunal and not be placed in the public docket in the proceeding, or (2) the pleading or other document is submitted in a sealed package clearly marked, "Confidential Materials Subject to Request for Protective Order," and is accompanied by a motion to that tribunal requesting issuance of a protective order that would require the pleading or other document be kept confidential and not be placed in the public docket in the proceeding, and requesting that if the motion for protective order is not issued by that tribunal, the pleading or other document be returned to the filing party.

12. No party may present or otherwise use any Designated Material at a Board hearing in these Proceedings, unless that party has previously submitted, under seal, all proposed exhibits and other documents containing or reflecting such Designated Material to the Board, to an administrative law judge or to another officer to whom relevant authority has been lawfully delegated by the Board, and has accompanied such submission with a written request that the Board, administrative law judge or other officer: (a) restrict attendance at the hearing during any discussion of such Designated Material, and (b) restrict access to any portion of the record or briefs reflecting discussion of such Designated Material in accordance with this Protective Order.

13. If any party intends to use any Designated Material in the course of any deposition in these Proceedings, that party shall so advise counsel for the party producing the Designated Material, counsel for the deponent, and all other counsel attending the deposition. Attendance at any portion of the deposition at which any Designated Material is used or discussed shall be restricted to persons who may review that material under the terms of this Protective Order. All portions of deposition transcripts or exhibits that consist of, refer to, or otherwise disclose Designated Material shall be filed under seal and be otherwise handled as provided in paragraph 10 of this Protective Order.

14. To the extent that materials reflecting Confidential Information are produced by a party in these Proceedings, and are held and/or used by the receiving person in compliance with paragraphs 1, 2 or 3 above, such production, disclosure, holding, and use of the materials and of the data that the materials contain are deemed essential for the disposition of this and any related proceedings and will not be deemed a violation of 49 U.S.C. 11904 or of any other relevant provision of the ICC Termination Act of 1995.

15. All parties must comply with all of the provisions of this Protective Order unless the Board or an administrative law judge or other officer exercising authority lawfully delegated by the Board determines that good cause has been shown warranting suspension of any of the provisions herein.

16. Nothing in this Protective Order restricts the right of any party to disclose voluntarily any Confidential Information originated by that party, or to disclose voluntarily any Confidential Documents originated by that party, if such Confidential Information or Confidential Documents do not contain or reflect any Confidential Information originated by any other party.
