United Transportation Union ("UTU") respectfully submits its petition to revoke the exemptions under 49 U.S.C. § 10502(d) in the above-captioned proceedings filed under 49 C.F.R. § 1180.2(d)(7). The carriers involved in these transactions are all under the common control of Canadian National Railway ("CN"), including Duluth, Missabe, and Iron Range Railway ("DMR"), Duluth, Winnipeg and Pacific Railway Company ("DWP"), and Wisconsin Central, Ltd. ("WC"). See e.g., Canadian National Railway Company and Grand Trunk Corporation -- Control -- Duluth, Missabe and Iron Range Railway Company, Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad Company, and The Pittsburgh and Conneaut Dock Company, Finance Docket No. 34424 (April 9, 2004); Canadian National Railway Company, Grand Trunk Corporation, and WC Merger Sub, Inc. -- Control -- Wisconsin Central Ltd., Fox Valley and Western Ltd., Sault Ste. Marie Bridge Company, and Wisconsin Chicago Link Ltd., Finance Docket No. 34000 (September 5, 2001). These carriers seek exemption authority for various trackage rights agreements under 49 U.S.C. § 11323(a)(6) in these intra-corporate transactions. In other words, these various CN carriers seek to operate over each other, although each carrier is already under the common control of CN pursuant to various prior transactions. Id.

There is no basis for the exercise of the Surface Transportation Board's jurisdiction under 49 U.S.C. § 11323. The real purpose of these transactions is obviously to abrogate or change the applicable labor agreements by moving work from one carrier to another. Thus, the exemptions sought here are truly a sham because they would not result in transactions cognizable under 49 U.S.C. § 11323. This movement of traffic by different carriers under the same corporate umbrella should be rejected for what it is: a false and misleading filing that merely allows the carriers to run roughshod over the collective bargaining agreements in place under the Railway Labor Act. This transaction is hauntingly familiar to another end around attempt by CN, but stopped by the STB in 1995. See Canadian National Railway Company -- Contract to Operate -- Grand Trunk Western Railroad Inc. and Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific Railway Co.. Finance Docket No. 32640 (April 14, 1995).

Similarly, here, the carriers solely seek to change the collective bargaining agreements applicable to certain CN operations already performed by another carrier in the same corporate family. Wherefore, UTU asks the Board to revoke the exemption authority. Alternatively, UTU asks the Board to carefully investigate/review this transaction. UTU intends to engage in discovery to further support this petition.

Respectfully submitted,
